Call for Applications: Artist Residency

Call for applications: Fall 2024 Artist Residency at the IMSS.

The selected artist is provided with a $5,000 stipend.

The residency period runs from July 2024 through December 2024. The capstone exhibition schedule is TBD, typically in the Spring of 2025.

Deadline to apply: April 15, 2024

Decisions: June 1, 2024

As artistic practice occupies an increasingly pluralistic field, The International Museum of Surgical Science believes that artists are uniquely equipped to extrapolate on Museum collections in innovative ways and introduce novel perspectives to the institutional depiction of medical history. The IMSS Artist Residency Program provides working artists with:

- Access to the Museum's extensive collections and archive
- Visibility on the Museum's website and social media channels
- A month-long capstone Solo Exhibition (or equivalent presentation) at the Museum

The Residency is open to practitioners of any medium. Collaborators may apply but are limited to 1 application as such. Those applying as collaborators are restricted from applying simultaneously as individuals. Applicants must reside in Chicago or surrounding suburbs or plan to reside in Chicago or surrounding suburbs at the time of their residency. The Museum does not cover the cost of travel to or from the city for this Residency and does not furnish a stipend for accommodations. The Museum selects one artist or artistic collaborative per session.

We believe in the power of the arts to build community, inspire social change, and bring fresh perspectives to difficult and complex issues—including issues of race, ethnicity, class, gender identity, and sexual orientation. IMSS seeks applications that address these issues.

The International Museum of Surgical Science does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status.

Individual artists or artist groups are encouraged to apply. Applicant must be a Chicago or Illinois-based resident.

There is a non-refundable $30.00 Application Fee for all applications.
